

MURRAYFIELD OPENS 2014 – SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Unfortunately it will not be possible to advise regarding the exact days of individual competitions until the closing date for the event, as it will depend on the entry numbers per event. However, we can offer the following guide to some of the events.

Thursday 1 st May	Solo Dance events, Beginners to Advanced Novice (PD and FD)
Friday 2 nd May (until approx. 3pm-4pm)	Jun and Sen Solo Dance events and all Couples dance events (PD/OD/FD)
Friday (after approx. 4pm)	Singles, some Beginners and Level 1 events if necessary only
Saturday	Level 8 SP, Level 2, Level 3,
Sunday	Level 8 FP, Level 9 SP and Level 10 SP
Monday	Level 9 FP and Level 10 FP, Level 7

The remaining events (Level 4, Level 5, Level 6 and Beginner events) will be split over the course of the Saturday, Sunday and Monday depending on final entry numbers. We will advise via the website as soon as the schedule is arranged.

The above tentative schedule is subject to change depending on numbers.

We hope you can all appreciate the complexities of working a timetable to allow as many skaters as possible to enter the event, all events judged under the IJS and working within the time constraints. Until the final entry numbers are known we cannot give any more details than stated above and appreciate your co-operation with this.

We look forward to welcoming you all to Murrayfield in May.
